§ 2-b. The circuit court, or the judge thereof in vacation, upon the petition of not less than fifty qualified voters residing within the boundaries of each sanitary district affected, provided, however, that if any of such districts contain less than one hundred qualified resident voters, such petition, as to such districts, shall be sufficient if signed by not less than fifty per centum of the qualified voters residing within the boundaries of each of such districts, may make an order merging into one sanitary district any two or more sanitary districts of whatsoever kind heretofore or hereafter created in the same county * pursuant to any of the provisions of this act, as amended, or pursuant to any other general or special law, which order shall prescribe the metes and bounds and the name or other designation of the new district so created.

Upon the filing of said petition a hearing shall be had as provided in § 2 hereof, and the notice of such hearing may require all interested persons to appear and show cause (1) why any special tax or taxes levied or to be levied for sanitary district purposes in any one or more of the districts affected may not be likewise levied and collected in the new district when created;

(2) Why a special tax or taxes may not be levied in such newly created district which shall be in lieu of any special tax or taxes levied for sanitary district purposes in any one or more of the districts affected, and a sufficient part of the revenue so obtained applied to pay the interest and to create a sinking fund to retire at maturity any outstanding bonds theretofore issued by any such district or districts; and

(3) Why the net operating revenue derived in any one or more of the said districts from the operation of any system or systems established under the provisions of section three of this act may not be set apart to pay the interest on and retire at maturity the principal of any bonds theretofore issued in connection with any such system or systems established in any of the said sanitary districts. (c) To contract with any person, firm, corporation, municipality, county, authority or the Federal government or any agency thereof to acquire, construct, reconstruct, maintain, alter, improve, add to and operate any such motor vehicle parking lots, water supply, drainage, sewerage, garbage removal and disposal, heat, light, power, gas, sidewalk, curbs, gutters, streets and street name signs and fire fighting systems in such district, and to accept the funds of, or to reimburse from any available source, such person, firm, corporation, municipality, county, authority or the Federal government or any agency thereof for either the whole or any part of the costs, expenses and charges incident to the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, maintenance, alteration, improvement, addition to and operation of any such system or systems.

(d) To require owners or tenants of any property in the district to connect with any such system or systems, and to contract with the owners or tenants for such connections. In order to require owners or tenants of any property in the district to connect with any such system or systems, the board of supervisors shall have power and authority to adopt ordinances so requiring owners or tenants to connect with such systems, and to use the same, and the board of supervisors shall have power to provide for a punishment in the ordinance of not exceeding a fifty dollar fine for each failure and refusal to so connect with such systems, or to use the same. Before adopting any such ordinance the board of supervisors shall give public notice of the intention to propose the same for passage by posting hand bill notices of such proposal in three or more public places in the sanitary district at least ten days prior to the time the ordinance shall be proposed for passage. The ordinance shall not become effective after its passage until ten days like notice has been given by posting copies of such ordinance in three or more public places in the district. Violations of such ordinances shall be tried before the county court of the county as is provided for trial of misdemeanors, and with like right of appeal.

(e) To fix and prescribe the rates, * rents, fees and other charges of whatsoever nature to provide funds for the acquisition, construction, operation, maintenance, improvement, betterment and extension of any system or systems or any project or facility described in paragraphs (a) and (a-1) of this section and for the payment of the principal of and interest on any bonds which may be issued to provide funds for the acquisition, construction, improvement, betterment and extension of any such system, project or facility and to provide for the collection of such rates, rents, fees and other charges. To enable the board of supervisors to enforce the collection of such rates, rents, fees and other charges for the use of any such system, project or facility against the person or persons, firm or corporation using the same, the rates, rents, fees and other charges when made for the use * thereof shall be collectible by distress, levy, garnishment, attachment or otherwise without recourse to court procedure, except so far as the selected procedure may require the same. Any unpaid charge shall become a lien superior to the interest of any owner, lessee or tenant, and next in succession to county taxes, on the real property on which the use of any such system was made and for which the charge was imposed; provided, however, such lien shall not bind or affect a subsequent bona fide purchaser of such real estate for valuable consideration without actual notice of such lien, except and until from the time that the amount of such charge is entered in the Judgment Lien Docket kept in the office where deeds may be recorded in the political subdivision wherein the real estate or a part thereof is located. It shall be the duty of the clerk in whose office deeds may be recorded to keep and preserve and hold available for public inspection such Judgment Lien Docket and to cause entries to be made and indexed therein from time to time upon certification by the board for which he shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents per entry to be paid by the board and added to the amount of the lien.

Such lien on any real estate may be discharged by the payment to the board of the total amount of such lien, and interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from the date such charge was due and payable which may accrue to the date of such payment, and the entry fee of fifty cents, and it shall be the duty of the board to deliver a certificate thereof to the person paying the same, and upon presentation thereof and the payment of the further fee of twenty-five cents by such person, the clerk having the record of such lien shall mark the entry of such lien satisfied.

Jurisdiction to enforce any such lien shall be in equity and the court may decree the real estate subject to the lien, or any part thereof, to be sold and the proceeds applied to the payment of such lien and the interest which may accrue to the date of such payment.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prejudice the right of the board to recover the amount of such lien, or of the charge, and the interest which may accrue, by action at law or otherwise.

In providing for the collection of charges the board may direct that such charges be included on the annual tax bill for the real property to which service is rendered, and when so included such charges shall be subject to the same provisions for collection as apply in the case of the collection of real property taxes. The board, in its discretion, shall establish the procedures and methods of assessment of such charges, determine the amount of such charges and the period or periods for which such charges shall be applicable, and shall otherwise arrange for the inclusion of such charges on the annual tax bill.

(f) To employ and fix the compensation of any technical, clerical, or other force and help which from time to time, in their judgment, may be deemed necessary for the construction, operation or maintenance of any such system or systems.

(g) To negotiate and contract with any person, firm, corporation, county, authority or municipality with regard to the connection of any system or systems with any other system or systems now in operation or hereafter to be established, and with regard to any other matter necessary and proper for the construction or operation and maintenance of any such system within the sanitary district.

(h) To contract for the extension of any such system into territory outside of the district, and for the use thereof, upon such terms and conditions as the board may from time to time determine upon.

(i) With respect to the maintenance and operation of said motor vehicle parking lots system, the board is authorized to purchase, install, maintain and operate, and to fix and charge parking meter fees for the use of, such parking lot or lots.

§ 4. * The board of supervisors in any such county in which a sanitary district of whatsoever kind has been or may hereafter be created pursuant to any of the provisions of this act, as amended, or pursuant to any other general or special law, shall have power to issue the bonds of any such sanitary district, in the manner hereinafter prescribed, to provide funds for the purpose of acquiring, constructing, improving, bettering or extending any system or systems, project or projects, or facility or facilities authorized by this act to an amount in the aggregate of not exceeding eighteen per centum of the assessed value of all real estate in such sanitary district, subject to local taxation, provided, however, that such limitation of eighteen per centum shall not apply if the petition required by § 5 of this act states the maximum amount of bonds to be issued and that such bonds are to be issued for a specified undertaking from which the sanitary district may derive revenue, but from and after a period to be determined by the board of supervisors, not exceeding five years from the date of the election authorized in § 6 of this act, whenever and for so long as such undertaking fails to produce sufficient revenue to pay for cost of operation and administration (including interest on bonds issued therefor) and the cost of insurance against loss by injury to persons or property, and an annual amount to be covered into a sinking fund sufficient to pay, at or before maturity, all bonds issued on account of such undertaking, all such bonds outstanding shall be included in determining such limitation.

§ 10. The board of supervisors shall determine what amount of bonds so authorized shall be issued * from time to time, but the maximum amount of bonds issued shall in no case exceed the maximum amount prescribed in § 4 of this act as amended, and in the event * the board of supervisors for any reason fails or refuses to issue the bonds so authorized, * the circuit court of the county may, upon the complaint of ten qualified voters of * the district and after ten days' notice to the chairman of the board of supervisors, for cause shown, issue an order directing * such board to issue the said bonds or any unissued residue thereof, or such portion thereof as the court may, from time to time, deem proper to be issued in order to carry out the wishes of the voters expressed in said election. * The bonds of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding six per centum per annum, shall mature at such time or times not exceeding thirty-four years from their date or dates, as may be determined by the board of supervisors, and may be made redeemable before maturity at the option of the board of supervisors at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the board of supervisors and stipulated upon the face of the bonds when issued. The board of supervisors shall determine the form and manner of execution of the bonds, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of payment of principal and interest within or without the State of Virginia. Any such bonds shall be signed by the chairman and countersigned by the clerk of the board of supervisors under its seal, provided, however, that the board of supervisors in the resolution authorizing such bonds may provide that any coupons appurtenant to such bonds may be authenticated by the facsimile signatures of either one or both of such officers and may also provide that the bonds be executed with the facsimile signature of either one of such officers and the manual signature of the other one of such officers, and may also provide that a facsimile of such seal be imprinted on the bonds. In case any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds, such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery, and any bond may bear the facsimile signature of, or may be signed by, such persons as at the actual time of the execution of such bond shall be the proper officers to sign such bond, although at the date of such bond such persons may not have been such officers. Such bonds may be issued in coupon or in registered form or both, as the board of supervisors may determine, and provision may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, for the reconversion into coupon bonds of any bonds registered as to both principal and interest and for the interchange of coupon and registered bonds. The board of supervisors may sell any such bonds in such a manner, either at public or private sale, and for such price as it may determine to be for the best interests of the district, but no such sale shall be made at a price so low as to require the payment of interest on the money received therefor at more than six per centum per annum, computed with relation to the absolute maturity of the bonds in accordance with standard tables of bond values, excluding, however, from such computation the amount of any premium to be paid on the redemption of any bonds prior to maturity. The board of supervisors shall deliver the bonds to the treasurer of the county, who shall deliver them to the purchaser thereof, upon payment of the purchase price therefor. All proceeds received from the sale of the bonds shall be promptly deposited by the treasurer to the credit of the district, and the treasurer shall account for all such proceeds through a fund, separate from all other funds, in the system of accounting of the county. Any funds not necessary for the purpose or purposes for which the bonds were issued shall be paid into the sinking fund to redeem the principal thereof at maturity. The treasurer and his sureties shall be liable for the amount received for said bonds as though it were a county levy and shall receive the reasonable cost to him of giving surety on such additional bond or bonds as may be required of him, if any, on account of his receipt of the proceeds of any of such bonds. The proceeds of the bonds shall be deposited, paid out and dispensed as provided in Article 2 of Chapter 20 of Title 58 of the Code of Virginia. All interest that shall accrue from such funds shall be accounted for by the treasurer and be expended for the purpose or purposes for which the bonds were issued, and in so far as not necessary therefor, shall be used for the payment of the interest on the bonds, or shall be paid into the sinking fund to redeem the principal thereof at maturity.

2. All proceedings heretofore taken in the creation of sanitary districts of whatsoever kind pursuant to any of the provisions of Chapter 161 of the Acts of Assembly of 1926 as amended are hereby validated, ratified, approved and confirmed, and all such districts so created or attempted to be created are hereby declared to have been validly created and established, notwithstanding any defects or irregularities in the creation thereof. All proceedings heretofore taken and all elections heretofore held in all such sanitary districts of whatsoever kind pursuant to said Chapter 161 to provide for, and with respect to the contracting of bonded indebtedness and the authorization, issuance, sale, execution and delivery of bonds by or on behalf of all such sanitary districts, are hereby validated, ratified, approved and confirmed, notwithstanding any lack of power of the board of supervisors of the county in which any such district is located to authorize and issue such bonds, or to authorize the execution, sale or delivery thereof, and notwithstanding any defects or irregularities in any such proceedings or elections, or in such execution, sale or delivery; all such bonds so issued or to be issued are and shall be binding, legal, valid and enforceable obligations of any such sanitary districts.

3. It is the intention of the General Assembly that this act shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes set out herein, and if any clause, sentence, paragraph or section of this act shall ever be declared unconstitutional, it shall be deemed severable, and the remainder of this act shall continue in full force and effect.

any form of taxation whatever therefor. All such revenue bonds shall contain a statement on their face substantially to the foregoing effect.

All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this Act shall be payable solely from funds provided under the provisions of this Act and no liability or obligation shall be incurred by the Authority hereunder beyond the extent to which moneys shall have been provided under the provisions of this Act.

§ 3. Peninsula Civic Recreation Center Authority.—There may be created, in the manner hereinafter set forth, a political subdivision of the Commonwealth to be known as the "Peninsula Civic Recreation Center Authority". The exercise by the Authority of the powers conferred by this Act in the construction, operation and maintenance of the project authorized by this Act shall be deemed and held to be the performance of an essential governmental function.

The Authority may be created by ordinance duly adopted by the council of the city of Newport News, or together with the councils of the cities of Hampton and Williamsburg or town of Poquoson, or the boards of supervisors of the counties of York and James City, or either of them, if such councils or boards elect to join with the council of the city of Newport News in the creation of such Authority.

The Authority shall consist of not less than three nor more than seven members, all of whom shall be appointed by the governing bodies of such political subdivisions as form the Authority or as otherwise provided herein. Each such subdivision shall be entitled to name one member of the Authority. If an uneven number results, the members named by the governing bodies may name a member at large. If the city of Newport News alone creates the Authority, its council may name all the members. The term of each member shall be for four years and to continue until his successor shall be duly appointed and qualified. The successor of each such member shall be appointed for a term of four years and until his successor shall be duly appointed and qualified, except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired term. Any member of the Authority shall be eligible for reappointment. Members of the Authority shall be subject to removal from office in like manner as are State, county, town and district officers under the provisions of §§ 15-500 to 15-503, inclusive, of the Code of Virginia, 1950. The Authority shall annually elect one of its members as chairman and another as vice chairman and shall also elect annually a secretary-treasurer, who may or may not be a member of the Authority.

The secretary-treasurer shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Authority and shall be custodian of all books, documents and papers filed with the Authority and of the minute book or journal of the Authority and of its official seal. He shall have authority to cause copies to be made of all minutes and other records and documents of the Authority and to give certificates under the official seal of the Authority to the effect that such copies are true copies, and all persons dealing with the Authority may rely upon such certificates.

Three members of the Authority shall constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of three members shall be necessary for any action taken by the Authority. No vacancy in the membership of the Authority shall impair the right of a quorum to exercise all the rights and perform all the duties of the Authority.

Before the issuance of any revenue bonds under the provisions of this Act the secretary-treasurer of the Authority shall execute a surety bond in the penal sum of fifty thousand dollars, such surety bond to be conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office, to be executed by a surety company authorized to transact business in the

(d) to issue revenue bonds of the Authority for any of its purposes, payable solely from the tolls and revenues pledged for their payment, and to refund its bonds, all as provided in this Act;

(e) to fix and revise from time to time and charge and collect tolls, rates, fees, rentals and other charges for the use of the project;

(f) to acquire, hold and dispose of real and personal property in the exercise of its powers and the performance of its duties under this Act;

(g) to employ, in its discretion, consulting architects and engineers, attorneys, accountants, construction and financial experts, superintendents, managers, and such other employees and agents as may be necessary in its judgment, and to fix their compensation;

(h) to construct such auditoriums, arenas and marinas as in the opinion of the Authority may increase the commerce and promote the safety, health, welfare, convenience and prosperity of the people of the Commonwealth;

(i) to sue and be sued in its own name, plead and be impleaded;

(j) to make and enter into all contracts and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its duties and the execution of its powers under this Act; and

(k) to do all acts and things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly granted in this Act.

§ 5. Acquisition of Property.—(a) The Authority is hereby authorized and empowered to acquire by purchase solely from funds provided under the provisions of this Act, such lands, structures, property, rights, rights of way, franchises, easements and other interests in lands, including lands lying under water and riparian rights, as it may deem necessary or convenient for the construction and operation of the project, upon such terms and at such prices as may be considered by it to be reasonable and can be agreed upon between it and the owner thereof.

All public agencies and commissions of the Commonwealth, with the approval of the Governor, notwithstanding any contrary provision of law, are hereby authorized and empowered to lease, lend, grant or convey to the Authority at its request upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon, without the necessity for any advertisement, order of court or other action or formality, any real property which may be necessary or convenient to the effectuation of the authorized purposes of the Authority, including public highways and other real property already devoted to public use.

(b) The Authority is authorized and empowered to acquire by gift from any local governing body, or any State or federal agency, or any individual or corporation any lands, property, rights, rights of way, franchises, easements and other property.

(c) Title to any property acquired by the Authority shall be taken in the name of the Authority.

(d) The Commonwealth hereby consents to the use of any lands or property owned by the Commonwealth, including lands lying under water, which are deemed by the Authority to be necessary for the construction or operation of the project.

(e) The several political subdivisions authorized to create the Authority are authorized to issue bonds to provide funds for the use of the Authority in the construction of the project and to make appropriations and to provide funds for the operation of the Authority.

§ 6. Revenue Bonds.—The Authority is hereby authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance, at one time or from time to time, of revenue bonds of the Authority for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of the project. The principal of and the interest on such bonds shall be payable solely from the funds herein provided for such payment. The bonds of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding six per centum (6%) per annum, shall mature at such time or times not exceeding forty years from their date or dates, as may be determined by the Authority, and may be made redeemable before maturity, at the option of the Authority, at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the Authority prior to the issuance of the bonds. The Authority shall determine the form and the manner of execution of the bonds, including any interest coupons to be attached thereto, and shall fix the denomination or denominations of the bonds and the place or places of payment of principal and interest, which may be at any bank or trust company within or without the Commonwealth. In case any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds, such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act or any recitals in any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, all such bonds shall be deemed to be negotiable instruments under the laws of the Commonwealth. The bonds may be issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, as the Authority may determine, and provision may be made for the registration of any coupon bonds as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, for the reconversion into coupon bonds of any bonds registered as to both principal and interest, and for the interchange of registered and coupon bonds. The Authority may sell such bonds in such manner, either at public or negotiated sale, and for such price, as it may determine will best effect the purposes of this Act.

The proceeds of the bonds shall be used solely for the payment of the cost of the project, and shall be disbursed in such manner and under such restrictions, if any, as the Authority may provide in the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or in the trust agreement hereinafter mentioned securing the same. If the proceeds of the bonds of any issue, by error of estimates or otherwise, shall be less than such cost, additional bonds may in like manner be issued to provide the amount of such deficit, and, unless otherwise provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or in the trust agreement securing the same, shall be deemed to be of the same issue and shall be entitled to payment from the same fund without preference or priority of the bonds first issued. If the proceeds of the bonds of any issue shall exceed such cost, the surplus shall be deposited to the credit of the sinking fund for such bonds.

Prior to the preparation of definitive bonds, the Authority may, under like restrictions, issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds when such bonds shall have been executed and are available for delivery. The Authority may also provide for the replacement of any bonds which shall become mutilated or shall be destroyed or lost. Bonds may be issued under the provisions of this Act without obtaining the consent of any department, division, commission, board, bureau or agency of the Commonwealth, and without any other proceedings or the happening of any other conditions or things than those proceedings, conditions or things which are specifically required by this Act.

§ 7. Trust Agreement.—In the discretion of the Authority any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the Authority and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the Commonwealth. Such trust agreement or the resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds may pledge or assign the tolls and other revenues to be received, but shall not convey or mortgage the project or any part thereof. Such trust agreement or resolution providing for the issuance of such bonds may contain such provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including covenants setting forth the duties of the Authority in relation to the acquisition of property and the construction, improvement, maintenance, repair, operation and insurance of the project, the rates of toll to be charged, and the custody, safeguarding and application of all moneys. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth which may act as depository of the proceeds of bonds or of revenues to furnish such indemnifying bonds or to pledge such securities as may be required by the Authority. Any such trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustee, and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders. In addition to the foregoing, any such trust agreement or resolution may contain such other provisions as the Authority may deem reasonable and proper for the security of the bondholders. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of such trust agreement or resolution may be treated as a part of the cost of the operation of the project.

§ 8. Revenues.—The Authority is hereby authorized to fix, revise, charge and collect rents, rates and fees for the use of the project and the different parts or sections thereof, and to contract with any person, partnership, association or corporation desiring the use of any part thereof, and to fix the terms, conditions, rents and rates of charges for such use. Such rents, rates and fees shall be so fixed and adjusted in respect of the aggregate of income from the project as to provide a fund sufficient with other revenues, if any, to pay (a) the cost of maintaining, repairing and operating such project and (b) the principal of and interest on such bonds as the same shall become due and payable, and to create reserves for such purposes. Such rents, rates and fees shall not be subject to supervision or regulation by any commission, board, bureau or agency of the Commonwealth or of any municipality, county or other political subdivision of the Commonwealth. The income and all other revenues derived from the project, except such part thereof as may be necessary to pay such cost of maintenance, repair and operation and to provide such reserves therefor as may be provided for in the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or in the trust agreement securing the same, shall be set aside at such regular intervals as may be provided in such resolution or such trust agreement in a sinking fund which is hereby pledged to, and charged with, the payment of the principal of and the interest on such bonds as the same shall become due, and the redemption price or the purchase price of bonds retired by call or purchase as therein provided. Such pledge shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made; the tolls and other revenues or other moneys so pledged and thereafter received by the Authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any

Neither the resolution nor any trust agreement by which a pledge is created need be filed or recorded except in the records of the Authority. The use and disposition of moneys to the credit of such sinking fund shall be subject to the provisions of the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or of such trust agreement. Except as may otherwise be provided in such resolution or such trust agreement, such sinking fund shall be a fund for all such bonds without distinction or priority of one over another.

§ 9. Trust Funds.—All moneys received pursuant to the provisions of this Act, whether as proceeds from the sale of bonds or as revenues, shall be deemed to be trust funds to be held and applied solely as provided in this Act. The Authority shall, in the resolution authorizing the bonds or in the trust agreement securing such bonds, provide for the payment of the proceeds of the sale of the bonds and the revenues to be received to a trustee, which shall be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the Commonwealth, which shall act as trustee of the funds, and hold and apply the same to the purposes of this Act, subject to such regulations as this Act and such resolution or trust agreement may provide. The trustee may invest and reinvest such funds in such securities as may be provided in the resolution authorizing the bonds or in the trust agreement securing such bonds.

§ 10. Remedies.—Any holder of bonds issued under the provisions of this Act or of any of the coupons appertaining thereto, and the trustee under any trust agreement, except to the extent the rights herein given. may be restricted by such trust agreement, may either at law or in equity, by suit, action, injunction, mandamus or other proceedings, protect and enforce any and all rights under the laws of the Commonwealth or granted by this Act or under such trust agreement or the resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds and may enforce and compel the performance of all duties required by this Act or by such agreement or resolution to be performed by the Authority or by any officer or agent thereof, including the fixing, charging and collection of tolls.

§ 11. Exemption from Taxation.—The exercise of the powers granted by this Act shall be in all respects for the benefit of the inhabitants of the Commonwealth, for the increase of their commerce, and for the promotion of their safety, health, welfare, convenience and prosperity, and as the operation and maintenance of the project by the Authority will constitute the performance of essential governmental functions, the Authority shall not be required to pay any taxes or assessments upon the project or any property acquired or used by the Authority under the provisions of this Act or upon the income therefrom; and the bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, their transfer and the income therefrom, including any profit made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free and exempt from taxation by the Commonwealth and by any municipality, county or other political subdivision thereof.

§ 12. Revenue Refunding Bonds.—The Authority is hereby authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance of its revenue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding any bonds then outstanding which shall have been issued under the provisions of this Act, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of such bonds, and, if deemed advisable by the Authority, for the additional purpose of constructing improvements, extensions or enlargements of the project. § 13. Act Liberally Construed.—This Act, being necessary for the welfare of the Commonwealth and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes thereof.

§ 14. Constitutional Construction.—The provisions of this Act are severable and if any of its provisions shall be held unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, the decision of such court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions of this Act. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this Act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included therein.

bers of the Commission, this fact shall be reported to the judge of the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond who shall appoint three persons, residents of the county or city to complete the membership of the Commission.

(d) Vacancies in the membership of the Commission shall be filled by the original appointing authority.

§ 3. (a) On or before October one, nineteen hundred sixty, the Commission shall meet for the purpose of organization. The Commission shall elect from among its members a Chairman and such other officers as it may deem necessary; may adopt such rules and regulations not inconsistent with this Act as it may deem necessary for the proper discharge of its duties; and may establish such committees as the work of the Commission may require.

(b) The Commission shall have the power to employ technically trained and clerical personnel to assist it or to contract with persons, firms or corporations for special and technical services or studies.

(c) As soon as possible after its organization, the Commission shall estimate the funds which will be necessary for it to carry out its functions, and shall request appropriations from the city of Richmond and from the county of Henrico. It is the intent of this Act that the work of the Commission shall be supported two-thirds by the city of Richmond and one-third by the county of Henrico to the extent that public funds are used, and any appropriation by either governing body may be conditioned on the appropriation by the other of its prorata share. The Commission is also authorized to accept gifts from persons, firms and corporations if such gifts are made available to the Commission to be used in its absolute discretion for the purposes of this Act.

(d) The city of Richmond and the county of Henrico shall make available to the Commission any information requested by the Commission, and they are hereby authorized to assist the Commission through gifts of necessary supplies and equipment, and temporary loans of personnel.

(e) The Commission shall select one of its members as Treasurer with authority to collect, deposit, and disburse funds made available to the Commission from any source whatsoever. All moneys received for the Commission shall be deposited in a separate bank account, shall be earmarked for the use of the Commission, and shall be paid out on warrants signed by the Treasurer and countersigned by the Chairman of the Commission.

§ 4. The Commission shall make a thorough study of the governmental operations of the city and the county, and as a result of their study shall, on or before December one, nineteen hundred sixty-one, submit to the respective governing bodies of the city and the county, a report setting forth its findings and recommendations concerning the several plans hereinafter set forth; to wit:

(1) Annexation by the city of all or a part of the county. The Commission shall determine the potential overall savings in the cost of government through the elimination of offices and the consolidation of functions, and the benefits to the annexed area in additional or improved services, as compared with the increased tax burdens which might result in the annexed area; it shall also determine how the outstanding indebtedness of the city, the county, and districts in the county could be equitably liquidated.

(2) Merger of the city and the county. The Commission shall investigate the advantages and disadvantages of such a plan, as compared with annexation, and how the same could be accomplished, and if it deems such plan to be desirable, it shall recommend any changes in the statute law of the Commonwealth necessary to permit the execution of such a plan.

(3) Consolidation of governmental functions. The Commission shall determine whether more efficient government would result from the performance of one or more specified functions by one governmental unit instead of by both the city and county, what functions could best be combined to promote the health, safety and welfare of the people of the metropolitan area and the more effective coordination of its growth and development, and whether the same could be best accomplished by agreement or contract between the city and county, the creation of an agency or agencies supported jointly by the city and the county with power to perform such functions, or other means. If the Commission determines that a plan of functional consolidation is desirable, it shall recommend any changes in the statute law of the Commonwealth necessary to permit the execution of such a plan.

§ 5. If the respective governing bodies of the city and county deem it desirable to ascertain the sentiment of the qualified voters of the metropolitan area as to any plan recommended by the Commission, they may by agreement call for an advisory referendum on the adoption of such plan. Such referendum shall be held at a general election, and the procedure shall conform, mutatis mutandis, to § 24-141 of the Code of Virginia; but the results of such election shall not be binding on the respective governing bodies.

2. This act shall become effective upon the adoption by the respective governing bodies of the city of Richmond and the county of Henrico, of resolutions stating the necessity and desirability of the creation of the Commission.

In other respects what is received by the personal representative under the compromise shall be treated as if recovered by him in an action under the section last mentioned. § 58-629. Every motor carrier subject to the tax hereby imposed shall be entitled to a credit on such tax equivalent to * seven cents per gallon on all gasoline or other motor fuel purchased by such carrier within this State for use in its operations either within or without this State and upon which gasoline or other motor fuel the tax imposed by the laws of this State has been paid by such carrier. Evidence of the payment of such tax in such form as may be required by, or is satisfactory to, the Commission shall be furnished by each such carrier claiming the credit herein allowed. When the amount of the credit herein provided to which any motor carrier is entitled for any quarter exceeds the amount of the tax for which such carrier is liable for the same quarter, such excess may under regulations of the Commission be allowed as a credit on the tax for which such carrier would be otherwise liable for any of the four succeeding quarters; or upon application within one hundred and eighty days from the end of any quarter, duly verified and presented, in accordance with regulations promulgated by the Commission and supported by such evidence as may be satisfactory to the Commission, such excess may be refunded if it shall appear that the applicant has paid to another state under a lawful requirement of such state a tax, similar in effect to the tax herein provided, on the use or consumption in said state of gasoline or other motor fuel purchased in Virginia, to the extent of such payment to said other state, but in no case to exceed the rate of * seven cents per gallon.

The Commission shall not allow such refund except after an audit of the applicant's records and shall audit the records of an applicant at least once a year. Such refund may be allowed without a formal hearing if the amount thereof is agreed to by the applicant. Otherwise, a formal hearing on the application shall be held by the Commission after notice of not less than ten days to the applicant and the Attorney General. Whenever any refund is ordered it shall be paid out of the highway maintenance and construction fund.

§ 58-711. There is hereby levied a tax of * seven cents per gallon on all motor fuel which is sold and delivered or used in this State, including all motor fuel sold by or through post exchanges, ship stores, ship service stores, commissaries, filling stations, licensed traders and other similar agencies located on United States military or other reservations within the boundaries of the State, when such fuel is not for the exclusive use of the United States and is not under the protection of the interstate commerce clause of the Constitution of the United States; provided, that the tax herein imposed and assessed shall be collected by and paid to the State but once in respect to any motor fuel. Nothing herein shall be construed to exempt from this tax any dealer in motor fuel on the motor fuel used in making such distribution. The tax herein levied shall be collected in the manner hereinafter provided. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, after (1) the refunds authorized by law, and (2) administrative expenses authorized by law, one-seventh of the revenue derived from the tax hereby imposed shall be transferred to a special fund designated "The Primary and Secondary Highway Emergency Fund", one-half of which fund shall be allocated to the secondary system of highways as provided by law and one-half of which fund shall be allocated to the primary system of highways as provided by law. Provided, however, that cities and towns and any county having withdrawn its roads from the secondary system of State highways under the provisions of Section 11 of Chapter 415 of the Acts of 1932 shall receive their proportionate share of such special fund as is now provided by law with respect to other motor fuel tax receipts.

amend or repeal any provision of this chapter or any application thereof to any person; provided, however, that the amount of benefits which at the time of any such alteration, amendment or repeal shall have accrued to the extent provided under subsection (c) of this section for the members or beneficiaries shall not be affected thereby.

(b) If the General Assembly repeals the provisions of this chapter, the Board shall continue to administer the retirement system in accordance with the provisions of this chapter for the sole benefit of the then members, any beneficiaries then receiving retirement allowances, and any future persons entitled to receive benefits in accordance with subsection (a)(2) of § 51-111.60 who are designated by any of said members.

(c) In the event of repeal as provided in subsection (b) of this section the assets of the retirement system shall be allocated by the Board in an equitable manner to provide benefits for the persons stated in subsection (b) of this section in accordance with the provisions of this chapter but based on years of creditable service and average final compensation as of the date of repeal and in the following order:

(1) For the benefit of then members to the extent of their individual account in the members' * contribution account. If any funds remain, then

(2) For the benefit of then beneficiaries and persons already designated by former members who are then beneficiaries in accordance with subsection (a)(2) of § 51-111.60, to the extent of the then actuarial value of their retirement allowances. If any funds remain, then

(3) For the benefit of members, and persons, if any, designated by them in accordance with subsection (a)(2) of § 51-111.60, to the extent, not provided under (1) above, of the then actuarial value of their accrued future retirement allowances. The allocation under this paragraph (3) shall be on the basis of the oldest ages first method.

In the event the assets at such date of repeal are insufficient to provide all of the benefits of (1) and/or (2) above, then the employer will contribute to the assets from time to time, as and when required, the amount necessary to make up such insufficiency.

(d) The allocation of assets of the retirement system provided for in subsection (c) of this section shall be carried out through the payment by the Board of the benefits provided for in this section as they become due, or by the transfer of such assets to any retirement system replacing this retirement system provided that such vesting of benefits as provided by this section shall be fully maintained under such new retirement system. Any funds remaining in the assets of this retirement system after all of the vested benefits provided by this section have been paid shall revert to the general funds.

Any cash and securities to the credit of the local pension system shall be transferred to the retirement system as of the date of approval. The trustees or other administrative head of the local pension system as of the date of the approval shall certify the proportion if any of the funds of the system that represents the accumulated contributions of the members, and the relative shares of the members as of that date. Such shares shall be credited to the respective accounts of such members in the * members' contribution account. The operation of the local pension system shall be discontinued as of the date of the approval.

§ 51-111.38. The agreement of any employer to contribute on account of its employees who become members shall be irrevocable, but should an employer for any reason become financially unable to make the * contributions payable on account of such members, then such employer shall be deemed to be in default. As of the date of such default, the actuary of the retirement system shall determine by actuarial valuation the amount of the reserves held on account of each then such member and each then beneficiary and shall credit to each such member and each such beneficiary the amount of reserve so held. The reserve so credited together with the amount of the accumulated contributions of each such member, shall be used to provide for him a retirement allowance beginning at age sixty-five, and the reserve so credited to each beneficiary shall be used to provide such part of his existing retirement allowance as such reserve is sufficient, which part shall thereafter be payable to him. Each such member shall at any time thereafter be entitled to discontinue membership in the retirement system and to a refund of his previous contributions upon demand. If any such member receives such a refund of contributions all rights to a retirement allowance commencing at age sixty-five shall thereupon cease. The rights and privileges of such members and such beneficiaries shall thereupon terminate, except as to the payment of the retirement allowance or parts thereof, or refunds of contributions provided for above.

§ 51-111.38:3. The employer contribution rate shall, unless otherwise fixed by the Board, be the * contribution rate determined as provided in § 51-111.47 for members of the retirement system qualifying under § 51-111.10(4). The contributions so computed shall be certified by the Board to the chief fiscal officer of the employer. The amounts so certified shall be a charge against the employer. The chief fiscal officer of each such employer shall pay to the State Treasurer the amount certified by the Board as payable under this article, including such charges as the Board may deem necessary to cover costs of administration, and the State Treasurer shall credit such amounts to the appropriate accounts of the retirement system.

Article 4.2

§ 51-111.38:10. (a) The Departments of the Army and Air Force, United States Property and Fiscal Office for Virginia, an employer, and the successor thereto, may, by resolution legally adopted and approved by the Board, elect to have its employees become eligible to participate in the retirement system. Acceptance of the employees of such an employer for membership in the retirement system shall be optional with the Board and if it shall approve their participation, then such employees may become members of the retirement system and participate therein as provided in the provisions of this article. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, employees of such employer who are members of any retirement, pension or benefit fund partially or wholly supported by public funds shall not be entitled to become members of the retirement system on that part of their compensation covered by such fund, provided that this limitation shall not apply as to such employees covered by Old Age and Survivors Insurance under the Social Security System.

§ 51-111.38:11. Membership in the retirement system for employees who are eligible as provided in § 51-111.38:10 shall be optional with such employees in the service on the date the approval is given, and any such employee who elects to join the retirement system within one calendar year thereafter shall be entitled to a prior service certificate covering such periods of previous service as shall be certified as creditable service by his employer for service rendered to such employer, or his predecessor, or in any other capacity approved by the employer and the Board, for which the employer is willing to make accrued liability contributions. Thereafter service for such employer on account of which the employer and member pay contributions, shall be considered also as creditable service.

§ 51-111.38:12. Membership in the retirement system shall be compulsory for all employees who are eligible as provided in § 51-111.38:10 and who enter service of an employer after the date the approval is given.

§ 51-111.38:13. The chief fiscal officer of the employer, and the heads of its departments, shall submit to the Board such information and shall cause to be performed in respect to the employees of the employer such duties as shall be prescribed by the Board in order to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

§ 51-111.38:14. The actuary of the retirement system shall compute, at least once in each two-year period, the rates of contributions payable annually by the employer on behalf of those employees who become members under the provisions of this article, which shall be determined by an actuarial valuation of the retirement allowances and other benefits which will be payable on account of the employees of such employer who become members. Such contributions shall be payable in lieu of contributions payable on account of other members in the system. The expense of making such initial and subsequent valuations shall be assessed against and paid by the employer on whose account it is necessary. The contributions so computed together with a pro rata share of the cost of the administration of the retirement system, based upon proportionate total membership, shall be certified by the Board to the chief fiscal officer of the employer. The amounts so certified shall be a charge against the employer. The chief fiscal officer of each such employer shall pay to the State Treasurer the amount certified by the Board as payable under the provisions of this article, and the State Treasurer shall credit such amounts to the appropriate accounts of the retirement system.

§ 51-111.38:15. Employees who become members under this article and on behalf of whom contributions are paid as provided in this article shall be entitled to benefits under the retirement system.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the retirement system shall not be liable for the payment of any retirement allowances or other benefits on account of the members or beneficiaries of any employer under this article, for which reserves have not been previously created from funds contributed by such employer or the members for such benefits.

§ 51-111.38:16. The agreement of any employer to contribute on account of its employees who become members shall be irrevocable, but should an employer for any reason become financially unable to make the contributions payable on account of such members, then such employer shall be deemed to be in default. As of the date of such default, the actuary of the retirement system shall determine by actuarial valuation the amount of the reserves held on account of each then such member and each then beneficiary and shall credit to each such member and each such beneficiary the amount of reserve so held. The reserve so credited together with the amount of the accumulated contributions of each such member, shall be used to provide for him a retirement allowance beginning at age sixty-five, and the reserve so credited to each beneficiary shall be used to provide such part of his existing retirement allowance as such reserve is sufficient, which part shall thereafter be payable to him. Each such member shall at any time thereafter be entitled to discontinue membership in the retirement system and to a refund of his previous contributions upon demand. If any such member receives such a refund of contributions all rights to a retirement allowance commencing at age sixty-five shall thereupon cease. The rights and privileges of such members and such beneficiaries shall thereupon terminate, except as to the payment of the retirement allowance or parts thereof, or refunds of contributions provided for above.

§ 51-111.41:1. (a) Any State employee or teacher member of the retirement system may be credited with prior and/or membership service which might otherwise be credited, except for cessation of membership under § 51-49 of the abolished system and/or under § 51-111.29 of this chapter because of the withdrawal of his accumulated contributions, provided such member repays, while in service and a member of the retirement system, the amount, or amounts, so withdrawn, together with interest thereon at the rate of 3½% per annum compounded annually from the date such funds were last credited with interest by the Board to the first day of the month during which repayment is made. Four-sevenths of such interest payment, and the amount previously withdrawn and so repaid, shall be credited to the account of the member in the members' contribution account.

(b) Any State employee or teacher member of the retirement system who rejected membership in the abolished system may be credited with service during the period of rejection upon payment of contributions, based on the current contribution rate of the retirement system, on the assumption that the salary received by such person on the date of payment had been received during the entire such period, plus 3½% interest thereon compounded annually from the end of each respective fiscal year to which the contribution applies to the first day of the month during which payment is made. Four-sevenths of such interest payment, and the amount of contributions paid, shall be credited to the account of the member in the members' contribution account.

(c) In order for the additional service provided for in subsections (a) and (b) of this section to be considered in the computation of any retirement allowance payable in the event of a member's retirement under § 51-111.56, the member shall have submitted at the time payment or repayment is made, a medical report satisfactory to the Medical Board showing that the member was at such time of sound mind and body.

(d) An administrative charge of five dollars shall be paid by the member to the retirement system when requesting a cost estimate of the amount of such payment or repayment under sub-section (a) or (b) of this section.

(e) Any State employee or teacher member of the retirement system with full time salaried service as a State employee, or teacher, prior to July one, nineteen hundred forty-two and heretofore not credited therewith, shall be credited with such prior service, provided, since becoming a member of the retirement system, five or more years of membership service has been credited such member, and, provided further, the member's contributions were not withdrawn under § 51-111.68 of the Code of Virginia, and if withdrawn under either, or both § 51-109 of the abolished system, or § 51-111.58, of this chapter, have been repaid under subsection (a) of this section.

(f) Any State employee member elected to a covered position by a joint vote of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Virginia and which position was for a period excluded under the abolished system, may be credited with service during such period by paying the member contributions which would have been payable, except for the exclusion.

(b) The Comptroller, in the case of all State employees paid by warrants on the State Treasurer, or, in the case of any other State employee, the department, institution or agency by which the salary is paid, or the employer in the case of teachers and other employees shall cause to be deducted from the salary of each member for each and every payroll period subsequent to the date of establishment of the retirement system, the contribution payable by such member as provided in this chapter, but in no case shall any deduction be made from the compensation of a member after his normal retirement date if such member elects not to contribute.

(c) In determining the creditable compensation of a member in a payroll period, whether semimonthly or monthly, the Board may consider the rate of compensation payable to such member on the date of entry or removal of name from payroll as having been received throughout the month if service for the month is creditable. If service for the month is not creditable, the Board may consider any compensation payable during the month as not being creditable compensation.

(d) The deductions provided for herein shall be made notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided by law for any member shall be reduced thereby. Every member shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deductions made as provided herein; and payment of salary or compensation less such deductions shall be a full and complete discharge of all claims for services rendered by such person during the period covered by such payment, except as to any benefits provided by this chapter.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, no deductions shall be made from any member's compensation if the employer's contribution required hereunder is in default.

(f) Any member who was a former member of the abolished system and who transferred his accumulated contributions to the retirement system as provided in § 51-111.41 and who has not withdrawn such contributions may at the time of filing his notice of retirement deposit in his account in the members' contribution account by a single payment such amount as will increase his total retirement allowance to an amount not greater than the largest amount obtainable under the applicable provisions of subsection (e) of § 51-111.55.

(g) The Board may modify the method of collecting the contributions of members so that the employers, departments, institutions and agencies required to remit to the State Treasurer as provided in subsection (b) of this section may retain the amounts deducted by them from members' salaries and have a corresponding amount deducted from State funds otherwise payable to them.

§ 51-111.47. (a) Each employer shall contribute annually an amount equal to * the "normal contribution". The normal contribution shall be determined as a percentage equal to the normal contribution rate of the total covered compensation of the members employed by such employer *.

(b) * The normal contribution rate shall be determined as the percentage of the members' compensation * payable during the members' periods of membership required to provide the difference between the total liabilities for retirement allowances not provided by the members' contributions and the amount of the assets in the retirement allowance account.

(d) * The normal contribution rate for each employer shall be determined on actuarial bases adopted by the Board. Such * rates shall be determined by the Board after each valuation and shall continue in force until a new valuation is made.

(e) The Board shall certify to the Comptroller, and to each employer contributor other than the State, the normal contribution * rate and every change made therein from time to time.

(f) The aggregate employer contributions payable into the retirement allowance account shall be at least sufficient, when combined with the applicable amount then held in the account, to provide the benefits payable from the account during the current year.

(g) At least thirty days prior to each regular session of the General Assembly, the Board shall certify to the Governor the respective amounts which will become due and payable to the retirement system from the State treasury during the biennium next following. The amounts so ascertained shall be included in the appropriation bill which is submitted to the General Assembly.

(h) In the case of all teachers whose compensation is paid exclusively out of funds derived from local revenues and appropriations from the general fund of the State treasury, and in the case of all State employees whose compensation is paid exclusively by the State out of the general fund of the State treasury, the State shall be the sole contributor, and all such contributions shall be paid out of the general fund. In the case of any teacher whose compensation is paid out of funds derived in whole or in part from any special fund, or from a contributor other than the State or some political subdivision thereof, then in any year there shall be paid out of the general fund only such proportion of the contributions on behalf of such employee as that part of such employee's compensation paid out of local revenues and funds derived from the general fund for that year bears to his total compensation for that year, and the remainder of such contributions shall be paid out of such special fund or by such other contributor in proportion to that part of the employee's compensation derived therefrom. In the case of a State employee whose compensation is paid in whole or in part out of any special fund, or by any contributor other than the State, then contributions on behalf of such employee in any year shall be paid out of such special fund, or by such other contributor, in proportion to that part of the employee's compensation derived therefrom for that year. The governing body of each county, city and town is hereby authorized to make such appropriations from the funds of such county, city or town as shall be necessary to pay its proportionate share of contributions on account of every State employee whose compensation is paid in part by such county, city or town.

§ 51-111.55. Subject to paragraph (h), upon service retirement a member shall receive an annual retirement allowance, payable monthly to him for life, which shall consist in the case of:

(a) Normal retirement.—An amount equal to one and one-eighth per centum of his average final compensation multiplied by his number of years of creditable service subject, however, to the provisions of subsections (c) and (d) of this section; provided, that in the case of any member retired on or after March one, nineteen hundred fifty-two and prior to July one, nineteen hundred sixty, the per centum rate herein provided shall be applicable in respect of all retirement allowances payable on and after July one, nineteen hundred sixty.

(b) Early retirement.—An amount which shall be determined in the same manner as for retirement at his normal retirement date with years of creditable service and average final compensation being determined as of the date of his actual retirement, and the amount of the retirement allowance so determined being reduced on an actuarial equivalent basis for the period that the actual retirement date precedes the normal retirement date subject, however, to the provisions of subsections (c) and (e) of this section.

(c) Normal or early retirement.—An amount additional to (a) or (b) above which shall be the actuarial equivalent, for his attained age at time of retirement, of the excess, if any, of his accumulated contributions transferred from the abolished system to the retirement system, including interest credited since such transfer to the date of retirement, over the amount obtained by accumulating at the rate of two per centum compounded annually, annual amounts equal to four per centum of his annual creditable compensation at the date of abolition of the Virginia Retirement System for a period equal to his period of membership in the abolished system and with interest credited at two per centum annually from the date of such transfer to the date of retirement.

(d) Normal retirement guarantee.—The retirement allowance payable upon normal retirement to a former member of the abolished system who transferred his accumulated contributions to the retirement system as provided in § 51-111.41 and who has not withdrawn such contributions prior to retirement, shall be at least an amount which when added to the primary social security benefits to which the member may become entitled under the Federal Social Security Act in effect at his retirement date, would equal the service retirement allowance to which the member would have been entitled under the provisions of the abolished system if he had continued contributions at the amount in effect at the date of abolition of the Virginia Retirement System.

(e) Early retirement guarantee.—The retirement allowance payable upon early retirement to a former member of the abolished system who transferred his accumulated contributions to the retirement system as provided in § 51-111.41 and who has not withdrawn such contributions prior to retirement shall not be less than the service retirement allowance determined in accordance with the provisions of the abolished system in the case of any member who would have qualified prior to his normal retirement date for such service retirement allowance if the Virginia Retirement System had not been abolished; provided, however, that the total retirement allowance payable in accordance with this subsection after any such member attains his sixty-fifth birthday shall be reduced by the amount of any primary social security benefits to which such member becomes entitled under the Federal Social Security Act then in effect, but the retirement allowance shall in no case be reduced below the amount that would be payable to such member except for the provisions of this subsection.

(f) Minimum service retirement allowance.—Anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding the amount of annual retirement allowance as determined under subsection (a) or (e) of this section shall be at least an amount which when added to the primary social security benefits to which the member may become entitled under the Federal Social Security Act in effect at his retirement date would equal twenty dollars times the number of years of creditable service of the member subject to a maximum of six hundred dollars.

(g) Determination of retirement allowance.—For the purposes of this section the retirement allowance shall be determined on the assumption that the retirement allowance is payable to the member alone and that no optional retirement allowance is elected.

(h) Beneficiary serving in position covered by this chapter.—Should a beneficiary of a service retirement allowance under this chapter or the abolished system be at any time in service in a position covered under the provisions of this chapter, his retirement allowance shall cease while so employed.

§ 51-111.56. Any member in service who has * ten or more years of creditable service may, at any time before his normal retirement date, retire on account of disability upon written notification to the Board, made by the member or his employer, setting forth at what time the retirement is to become effective; provided that such effective date shall be after his last day of service but shall not be more than ninety days prior to the filing of such notice; provided, however, that in the case of any member entering service on or after July one, nineteen hundred sixty, the creditable service requirement for disability retirement shall be fifteen years unless such member, within ninety days after commencement of service, has submitted a medical report satisfactory to the Medical Board showing that the member was at such time of sound mind and body, in which case the ten-year requirement shall apply; provided further that the Medical Board, after a medical examination of * the member requesting disability retirement, shall certify that such member is, and has been continuously since such effective date if prior to the filing of such notice, mentally or physically incapacitated for the further performance of duty and that such incapacity is likely to be permanent and that such member should be retired.

§ 51-111.57. Upon retirement as provided in § 51-111.56, a member shall receive an annual retirement allowance payable monthly during his lifetime and continued disability which shall consist in the case of:

(a) Any allowance payable prior to the member's normal retirement date.—An amount equal to one and one-quarter per centum of his average final compensation multiplied by his number of years of creditable service.

(b) Any allowance payable on or after the member's normal retirement date.—An amount equal to the service retirement allowance for normal retirement determined on the assumption that the member's creditable compensation on the date of disability retirement continued in the same amount up to his normal retirement date and on the assumption of years of creditable service up to his normal retirement date including in creditable service the period of disability retirement prior to normal retirement date.

(c) Disability retirement guarantee.—The disability retirement allowance payable on or after a member's normal retirement date to a former member of the abolished system who transferred his accumulated contributions to the retirement system and who has not withdrawn such contributions prior to such retirement, shall be at least an amount which, when added to the primary social security benefits to which the member may become entitled under the Federal Social Security Act in effect at his retirement date, would equal the disability retirement allowance to which the individual would have been entitled under the provisions of the abolished system. The provisions of subsection (d) of § 51-111.55 shall not be applicable in the determination of the benefits guaranteed under this paragraph.

(d) Minimum disability retirement allowance.—Anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding the amount of annual retirement allowance as determined under this section shall be at least an amount which when added to the primary social security benefits to which the member may become entitled under the Federal Social Security Act in effect at his retirement date would equal * one thousand dollars or twenty-five per centum of average final compensation whichever is larger, provided further, effective July one, nineteen hundred * sixty, the minimum disability allowance herein provided shall be applicable in case of any member retired or retiring subsequent to March one, nineteen hundred fifty-two.

(e) Determination of retirement allowance.—For the purposes of this section the retirement allowance shall be determined on the assumption that the retirement allowance is payable to the member alone and that no optional retirement allowance is elected.

(f) Reduction of allowance by amount of payments under Workmen's Compensation Act.—Any allowance payable to a member under this section shall be reduced by the amount of any payments finally awarded under the Virginia Workmen's Compensation Act and the excess of the allowance, if any, shall be paid to such member. § 51-111.58. If a member has ceased to be an employee, otherwise than by death, or by retirement under the provisions of this chapter, he shall be paid, on demand, but not later than ninety days thereafter, the amount of his accumulated contributions reduced by the amount of any retirement allowances previously received by him under any of the provisions of this chapter or the abolished system. *

§ 51-111.58:1. (a) Should a member die at any time before retirement, and before attaining his sixtieth birthday, the amount of his accumulated contributions, reduced by the amount of any retirement allowance previously received by him under this chapter or the abolished system, shall be paid to such person, if any, as he has nominated by written designation signed and acknowledged by such member before some person authorized to take acknowledgments and filed with the Board, otherwise to his executors or administrators. Any such designation may be changed by the member by the written designation of some other person, signed, acknowledged and filed as aforesaid.

(b) Should a member die at any time before retirement and after attaining his sixtieth birthday, there shall be paid a retirement allowance to the first of the following listed persons, if any, alive at the death of the member: wife, husband, mother, father; such retirement allowance shall be continued during the lifetime of the first listed person qualifying therefor and shall be, (1) in the case of a member who dies prior to attaining his sixty-fifth birthday, an allowance equal to one-half of the decreased retirement allowance that would have been payable to the member had the member retired on the date of his death after having elected to have his allowance payable under the joint and last survivor option described in subsection (a)(2) of § 51-111.60 so that one-half thereof would be continued after his death to such first listed person; or, (2) in the case of a member who dies after attaining his sixty-fifth birthday, an allowance equal to the decreased retirement allowance that would have been payable to the member had the member retired on the date of his death after having elected to have his allowance payable under the joint and last survivor option described in subsection (a)(2) of § 51-111.60 so that the same amount would be continued after his death to such first listed person. Provided that, in any case qualifying under (1) or (2) of this subsection, in the determination of the allowance that would have been payable to the member had the member retired on the date of his death, the provisions of subsections (c), (d) and (e) of § 51-111.55 shall not apply; and provided further that if no such listed person survives the member, or if the first such listed person so qualifying so elects in writing under seal and duly acknowledged, the amount of the member's accumulated contributions, reduced by the amount of any retirement allowance previously received by him under this chapter or the abolished system, shall be paid to the person, if any, currently designated by the member to have received any benefits due under subsection (a) of this section upon the death of the member, or to the estate, if none be so designated in lieu of any other benefits under this subsection.

§ 51-111.59. If a member dies after the effective date of his retirement under this chapter, the excess, if any of his accumulated contributions as of the effective date of his retirement, over the total retirement allowances received by him shall be paid in the same manner as provided in * subsection (a) of § 51-111.58:1 in the case of death before retirement unless the retirement allowance is then being paid in accordance with any of the options of § 51-111.60.

§ 51-111.63. (a) Should a beneficiary of a disability retirement allowance be at any time prior to his normal retirement date in service, his disability retirement allowance shall cease and he shall become a member of the retirement system and shall thereafter contribute. Any prior service certificate on the basis of which his disability retirement allowance was computed shall be restored and, in addition, he shall be credited with all his previous membership service which shall include the period of disability retirement. (b) The amounts of life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance on employees who remain employed after age sixty-five shall be reduced by two per centum thereof at the end of each full calendar month following the date the employee attains age sixty-five; but such reduction shall not decrease the amount of insurance on an employee to less than twenty-five per centum of the insurance in force immediately preceding the first reduction therein; provided, that the amounts of life and accidental death and dismemberment insurance in force from time to time on an employee who becomes insured under this act after having attained the age of sixty-five shall be the same as would be in force had he been insured at age sixty-five and shall be based on the lesser of his annual compensation (1) at the time he becomes so insured, or (2) at age sixty-five provided he was eligible at that time to be insured under this act.

(c) The amount of life insurance on each employee who retires (for service or because of disability) on an immediate annuity shall be reduced by two per centum of the amount of insurance in force at such employee's age sixty-five, or other lesser age if so retired prior to age sixty-five, at the end of each full calendar month following the date the employee attains age sixty-five or other lesser age if so retired prior to age sixty-five; but such reduction shall not decrease the amount of life insurance on an employee to less than twenty-five per centum of the insurance in force immediately preceding the first reduction therein; provided, that the amounts of life insurance in force from time to time on an employee who becomes insured under this act after having attained the age of sixty-five and later so retires shall be the same as would be in force had he been insured and so retired at age sixty-five and shall be based on the lesser of his annual compensation (1) at the time he becomes so insured, or (2) at age sixty-five provided he was eligible at that time to be insured under this act; provided that the Board may, in the case of a disabled retirant who returns to service in a position covered by this act, provide for the insuring of such person for an amount and in the same manner as if then originally employed but the insurance applicable to such person shall be deemed to have been issued as of the time such person was first insured under the group insurance provided for in this act.

§ 51-111.67:6. Notwithstanding any statute, law, regulation or rule presently in force, during any period in which an employed employee is insured under a policy of insurance purchased under the authority of this act, the Comptroller, in the case of all State officers and employees paid by warrants on the State Treasurer, and, in the case of any other State employee, the department, division, institution or agency by which the salary is paid, and the employer in the case of teachers and other employees, shall, except as otherwise provided in § 51-111.67:5 of this act, cause to be deducted from the salary of each employee for each and every payroll period subsequent to the effective date of such insurance, an amount determined by the Board, but not to exceed the rate of seventy cents per month per each thousand dollars of his group life insurance; provided, that an employee who is paid on other than a monthly basis shall have an amount so deducted, determined at a proportionate rate, which rate shall be adjusted to the nearest cent. All amounts so deducted shall be retained in or paid into the Treasury of Virginia to the credit of the Board and shall be available to the Board for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act.

If such notice is received before the employee shall have become insured under such policy, he shall not be so insured; if it is received after he shall have become insured, his insurance under the policy will cease effective with the end of the pay period during which the notice is received by the employing office. Any such employee so notifying his employing office that he desires not to be insured may thereafter become insured only upon presentation at his own expense of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the insuring company.

§ 51-111.67:7. Each policy purchased by the Board pursuant to the provisions of this act shall provide for an accounting to the Board not later than ninety days after the end of each policy year, which shall set forth, in a form approved by the Board, (1) the amounts of premiums actually accrued under the policy from its date of issue to the end of such policy year, (2) the total amount of all mortality and other claim charges incurred for that period, and (3) the amounts of the insurer's expenses and risk charges for such period. Any excess, or portion of such excess, of the total of item (1) over the sum of items (2) and (3) may, with the approval of the Board, be held by the insurance company issuing the policy as a special contingency reserve to be used by such insurance company for charges under such policy only, such reserve to bear interest at a rate to be determined in advance of each policy year by the insurance company issuing the policy, which rate shall be approved by the Board as being consistent with the rates generally used by such company for similar funds held under other group life insurance policies; provided, that if and when the Board determines that such special contingency reserve has attained an amount estimated by it to make satisfactory provision for adverse fluctuations in future charges under the policy any further such excess shall inure to the benefit of the Commonwealth and other employers participating in the insurance as determined by the Board.

It is provided, however, that no payment from this item for a State aid teaching position shall exceed two-thirds of the salary paid the incumbent of a State aid teaching position when the total salary of such incumbent is less than the amount of State aid available for each State aid teaching position. e. The county or city shall pay from local funds at least thirty per cent (30%) of the total amount expended for salaries of teachers and other instructional personnel. However, a county or city shall be permitted by the State Board of Education to pay not less than twenty per cent (20%) of such amount if the county or city provides a levy or cash appropriation or a combination of both for schools, which, when converted to an equivalent true tax rate, is as great as the average of all county or all city levies or cash appropriations or a combination of both such levies and appropriations for schools converted to an equivalent true tax rate; in converting a levy or cash appropriation or a combination of both for schools to an equivalent true tax rate, ratios of assessed valuations to true values used shall be such ratios determined by the State Tax Commissioner for the tax year 1950. For such counties or cities, the State Board of Education shall determine the per cent of local contribution, in no instance less than twenty per cent (20%) of the total amount expended for salaries of teachers and other instructional personnel.

g. If any municipality annexes any portion of any county or counties, the State Board of Education shall make such equitable adjustment of the funds which would otherwise have gone to either as is in its opinion justified by the peculiar condition created by such annexation, and order distribution of such funds according to its findings. This provision shall not apply if a court of competent jurisdiction makes such adjustment and orders such distribution.

h. Allotments of funds from this item shall be paid to a county or city only after submission of evidence satisfactory to the State Board of Education that the amount for which the allotment is claimed has been or will be expended for the purpose designated and in full compliance with the terms and conditions set forth pursuant to this item.

i. It is further provided that the State Board of Education with the approval of the Governor may make such equitable adjustment in the distribution of this fund as may be necessary due to a substantial loss in average daily attendance of pupils in any county, city or town. The average daily attendance data for such county, city or town for the previous year may be used in making this adjustment.

It is further provided that in the event the total of the sums set forth in Items 365, 366 and 367 exceeds the amount necessary to make the apportionments required by this item, any balance remaining may, upon request by the State Board of Education, Section 6. It shall not be lawful for the Comptroller to pay any State department, institution or other agency any money, except as is provided for in this act, or in pursuance of some act of the General Assembly making special appropriations therefor during the current biennium.

Section 7. Except as provided by Section 8 of this act none of the monies mentioned in this act shall be expended for any other purpose than those for which they are specifically appropriated. It shall be the duty of the Governor, as chief budget officer of the State, or his deputy, to see that this provision is strictly observed. Should he find that the said monies are not being expended in accordance with the provisions of this act, or that the expenditures under any appropriation herein are in excess of the amount necessary to carry out the purpose for which said appropriation was made, he is hereby given the power to restrain the Comptroller from making further disbursements, in whole or in part, out of said appropriations, to the offending State department, institution, officer or other agency of the State government receiving appropriations under the provisions of this act. He is further authorized to withhold funds from expenditure in the event factors, such as population in institutions, related to appropriation amounts differ from the estimates made of such factors as a basis for appropriation.

Should appropriation be withheld by the Governor from any such department, institution, officer, or other agency named in this act, or should transfers be authorized by the Governor, as hereinafter provided, a copy of the Governor's order in each case setting forth the reasons for withholding said appropriations or for authorizing the transfer of said appropriations, as the case may be, shall be preserved in the office of the Governor or the Division of the Budget and kept open for public inspection.

Section 8. It is provided that the several appropriations made by this act may not only be used for the purposes specified in this act, but authority is hereby given to the governing board of any department, institution or other agency of the State government, or, if there be no governing board, to the head of such department, institution or other agency named in this act, to transfer, within the respective department, institution or other agency, any such appropriations from the object for which specifically appropriated or set aside to some other object definitely and closely related to the object for which the appropriation was made. Subject to the same conditions, the governing board of any group of institutions may transfer appropriations between institutions and activities under its management and control. Such transfers may be made only with the prior written approval of the Governor, and only if an appropriation is also made by this act to said related object and if, in the opinion of the Governor and department head, later developments have rendered such transfers appropriate to carry out the original intention of the General Assembly in making this appropriation. The total amount appropriated to the respective department, institution, or group of institutions, or other agency of the State government shall in no case be exceeded.

AUTHORITY TO REDUCE APPROPRIATIONS WITHIN REVENUES

Section 9. All of the monies hereinabove appropriated as shown by the hereinabove contained items are appropriated upon the conditions set forth in this act. All appropriations made in any act passed at this session of the General Assembly shall be construed as subject to the same provisions and conditions contained in this section. All such appropriations, as well as those contained in this act, are hereby declared to be maximum and conditional appropriations, the purpose being to make the general fund appropriations payable in full in the amounts named only in the event the aggregate revenues to be collected and paid into the general fund of the State treasury during the current biennium, including any unexpended balance in general fund revenues brought forward from the previous biennium, are estimated by the Governor to be sufficient to pay all of the said appropriations payable from the said general fund in full; otherwise, the said appropriations shall be deemed to be payable in such proportions as the total sum of all appropriations out of the general fund of the treasury bears to the total amount of general fund revenue estimated as available from revenues to be collected and paid into the general fund of the State treasury in the current biennium, including any unexpended balance in general fund revenues brought forward from the previous biennium; in the event any such reduction in appropriations is found neccessary, it shall be made on a uniform percentage basis applicable alike to each appropriation made out of the general fund.

The Governor is hereby given the power and authority to examine and survey the progress of the collection of revenue applicable to the general fund of the State treasury, out of which the appropriations made by this act or by any other act are payable, and to declare and determine the amounts that can during each quarter of each of the fiscal years of the biennium be properly allocated to each respective appropriation. All reductions made, because of revised estimates of revenues, in allocations requested by any department, institution, or other agency of the State government within the amounts contained in their respective appropriations shall be uniform in percentage as to all such respective appropriations, provided that the Director of the Division of the Budget shall have authority so to restrict any such quarterly allocation as to prevent the expenditure out of any such appropriation of any amount in any quarter so large as to threaten a deficit in any such specific appropriation. In making such examination and survey, the Governor may require estimates of the prospective collection of revenues from the Comptroller, the State Tax Commissioner, the State Corporation Commission and any other revenue assessing or collecting agency of the State having information which in the opinion of the Governor may be pertinent. The Governor shall, subject to the qualifications herein contained, reduce all of said appropriations payable out of the general fund of the State treasury, made by this act or by any other act when, and to the extent, necessary to prevent any expenditure for the payment of the said general fund appropriations in excess of the revenues collected and paid into the said general fund of the State treasury during the current biennium, including any unexpended balance in general fund revenues brought forward from the previous biennium. Any reduction so made shall be applied to the appropriations payable from the general fund to local officers and employees in the same manner and degree as to departments, institutions or other agencies receiving appropriations from the general fund.

In exercising the powers and performing the duties set forth in the preceding paragraphs, the Governor shall in no case reduce the total appropriations made to any one department, institution or other agency therein referred to to any amount less than seventy-five per centum of the total of the original appropriations.

This section shall not be construed as authorizing any reduction to be made in the amounts herein appropriated for the payment of interest or sinking fund installments on the State's bonded debt, or for the payment of a legally authorized deficit, or in unexpended amounts or balances in appropriations made by any preceding session of the General Assembly and reappropriated by this act, or for the payment of pensions to Confederate veterans, their widows or dependents, or for the support of needy Confederate women, or Confederate veterans, or for caring for the graves of Confederate dead, nor as authorizing any reduction to be made in appropriations made herein, for social security and retirement fund requirements, to the Virginia Supplemental Retirement System, nor in any appropriation made to enable payments to be made in fulfillment of any contract for the construction and furnishing of any State building, nor as authorizing a reduction in the salary of any State officer where such reduction would be contrary to the Constitution of the State.

Where necessary to the exercise of the powers and duties conferred on the Governor by this section, he may enforce such uniform reductions in the salaries of State officials and employees on a flat or graduated basis as he may find necessary, provided that any such salary reduction which the Governor may order or require shall apply to salaries payable from special funds as well as to salaries payable from the general fund of the treasury.

Provided, further, however, that no reduction of more than 15 per cent shall be made under this section in any annual salary of any officer or employee.

This section shall not be construed as limiting the authority of the Governor under the Virginia Personnel Act to establish a uniform compensation plan and amendments thereto.

Section 10. Every appropriation set forth in this act for maintenance and operation of any State institution and made payable from the general fund of the State treasury is to supplement revenues earned and collected by such institution, exclusive of revenues paid into the general fund of the State treasury, and shall be paid from the general fund of the State treasury only insofar as shall be necessary to provide for the maintenance and operation of such institution; each such appropriation shall be reduced by the Governor insofar as the same is not so required. Provided, however, that this limitation shall not apply to appropriations, to institutions of higher learning, designated for scholarships.

AUTHORITY TO INCREASE APPROPRIATIONS

Section 11. The Governor is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to increase the appropriations to any of the agencies named in Section 21e of this act, to an amount not to exceed the revenues collected and paid into the general fund of the State treasury by such agency, during the current biennium.

It is provided, further, that the Governor is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to increase the appropriations to any of the institutions named in Section 21f, to an amount not to exceed the monies, fees and revenues collected and paid into the State treasury by the said institution, for a material expansion of the activities of the said institution, where in the judgment of the Governor such expenditure will result, within a period of twelve months from the granting of such permission by the Governor, in the repayment to the State treasury by the said institution of an equal or larger amount than the monies so expended.

Section 12. The Governor is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to increase the appropriations to any department, institution or other agency of the State government by the amount of credit established to such department, institution or other agency from the sale of surplus property under the provisions of § 2-265 of the Code of Virginia.

Section 13. Any amount paid to any department, institution or other agency of the State government as proceeds of an insurance policy may be expended to replace any property loss covered by such policy and is hereby appropriated, for expenditure as far as may be necessary, to make such replacement; provided, however, that the Governor's written approval shall first be obtained for any such expenditure.

Section 14. With the prior written approval of the Governor, any department, institution or other agency of the State government may expend, in addition to the appropriation herein made to such department, institution or other agency, any money, revenue or funds paid into the State treasury to the credit of said department, institution or other agency, in excess of such appropriations as proceeds of donations, gifts, Federal grants, or other special revenues when later developments are believed to make such expenditure necessary. Such expenditures from any gift, grant or donation shall be in accordance with the purpose for which it was made.

SOLICITATION AND ACCEPTANCE OF DONATIONS, GIFTS AND FEDERAL GRANTS

Section 15. No donations, gifts or Federal grants whether or not entailing commitments as to the expenditure, or subsequent request for appropriation or expenditure, from the general fund of the State treasury shall be solicited or accepted by or on behalf of any department, institution or other agency of the State government without the prior written consent and approval of the Governor.

DEFICITS—AUTHORIZED, UNAUTHORIZED

Section 16. No State department, institution or other agency receiving appropriations under the provisions of this act shall exceed the amount of its appropriations, or incur obligations at a rate which would result in the creation of a deficit in its appropriations, except in an emergency, and then only with the consent and approval of the Governor in writing first obtained. No emergency shall be deemed to exist because of conditions which, by the exercise of reasonable care and good judgment, could have been foreseen when the General Assembly was in session. If any such department, institution or other agency shall exceed the amount of its appropriation without such consent and approval of the Governor in writing first obtained, the Governor is hereby directed to withhold his approval from such excess expenditure, and there shall be no reimbursement of said excess, nor shall there be any liability or obligation upon the State to make any appropriation hereafter to meet such deficit. Further, those members of any governing board of any such department, institution or other agency who shall have voted therefor, or, if there be no governing board, the head of any such department, institution or other agency, making any such excessive expenditure shall be personally liable for the full amount of such unauthorized deficit, and, in the discretion of the Governor, shall be deemed guilty of neglect of official duty, and be subject to removal therefor. Further, the Comptroller is hereby directed to make public any excess expenditure made without prior written approval of the Governor, and the Director of the Division of the Budget is hereby directed to set out in the next budget any excess expenditure whether or not approved by the Governor. The Governor is hereby directed to bring this provision of this act to the attention of the members of the governing board of each such department, institution or other agency of the State government, or if there be no governing board, to the head of each such department, institution or other agency, not later than the date this act becomes effective. The amount which the Governor may authorize any State agency or agencies to expend, out of the general fund of the State treasury, in excess of the appropriation for such agency or agencies, under the provisions of this section, during the current biennium, shall not exceed for all such agencies combined one per cent (1%) of the revenues collected and paid into the general fund of the State treasury during the last year of the previous biennium and the first year of the current biennium.

Any amount which a department, institution or other agency of the State government may expend in excess of its appropriation, under authority given by the Governor under this act to such department, institution or other State agency to exceed its appropriation or to incur a deficit, shall be first obtained by the said department, institution or agency by borrowing said amount on such terms and from such sources as may be approved by the Governor and the State Treasurer. At the close of business on the last day of the current biennium any unexpended balance of such loan shall be applied toward repayment of the loan.

CAPITAL OUTLAY

Section 17. In regard to each project for which a capital outlay appropriation or reappropriation is made in this act, or which is hereafter considered by the Governor for inclusion in the executive budget, the Governor is hereby required: (a) to determine the urgency of its need, as compared with the need for other capital outlay projects as herein authorized, or hereafter considered; and, (b) to determine whether the proposed plans and specifications for each capital outlay project for which appropriations or reappropriations are herein made, or hereafter considered, are suitable and adequate, and whether or not they involve expenditures which are excessive for the purposes intended; and, (c) to determine whether labor, materials, and other requirements if any, needed for the acquisition or construction of such project can and will be obtained at reasonable cost.

No architectural or engineering planning for, or construction of, any capital outlay project involving expenditure of State funds shall be commenced without the prior written approval of the Governor. The Governor, at his discretion, may release from any capital outlay appropriation or reappropriation made in this act such sum (or sums) as may be necessary to pay for the preparation of plans and specifications by architects and engineers, provided that the estimated cost of the construction covered by such drawings and specifications does not exceed the appropriation therefor; provided, further, however, that the architectural or engineering fees paid on completion of the preliminary design for any such project may be based on such estimated costs as may be approved by the Governor in writing, where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Governor that higher costs of labor or material, or both, or other unforeseen conditions, have made the appropriation inadequate for the completion of the project for which the appropriation was made, and where in the judgment of the Governor such changed conditions justify the payment of architectural or engineering fees based on costs exceeding the appropriation.

Section 18. The State departments and agencies in Richmond which pay rentals for office and storage space, whether or not in State-owned buildings, may elect, with the consent of the Governor, as a means of eliminating such rentals, to contribute to the construction or purchase of a building or buildings to be owned by the State in which they shall be provided office and storage space without rental except for services provided. Such departments and agencies as elect, with the consent of the Governor, to make such contributions shall transfer from appropriate surplus special fund accounts to a special account in the Governor's Office a sum equivalent to the pro rata share of the cost of such building or buildings. The pro rata share shall be based upon the estimated minimum gross space requirements as approved by the Governor; for purposes of initial transfers the figures of $20.00 per gross square foot for office space and $10.00 per gross square foot for storage space shall be used. Any sums so transferred to the special account herein described shall be used solely for the planning and constructing or purchasing of office and storage space and of auxiliary equipment and utilities for the use of the departments and agencies contributing. For the use of office or storage space in such building no rental shall be charged the contributing agency or any bureau or division thereof except for services. This section shall not be construed as limiting or restricting in any way the exercise by the Director of the Division of the Budget of the authority given him by Section 2-75.1 of the Code of Virginia to utilize subject to the approval of the Governor any vacant property owned by the State and located near the Capitol Square for the purpose of providing parking facilities for officers and employees of the State and to allocate spaces therein and operate the same under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe.

Section 19. Funds received during the current or previous biennia from the sale of property by any department, institution or other agency of the State government, to the Richmond-Petersburg Turnpike Authority are hereby appropriated to the said State department, institution or other agency making such sale, for use only for capital outlay items and purchase of land as may be recommended by the governing board, or where there is no governing board, by the head of the said State department, institution or other agency, subject to the approval of the Governor.

PAYMENTS INTO SPECIAL FUND

Section 20. All monies, fees, charges, and revenues heretofore accumulated or hereafter collected for the inspection of agricultural products by the Department of Agriculture and Immigration shall be paid directly and promptly into the State treasury and shall constitute a special fund from which appropriations may be made for such inspection, notwithstanding any other provisions of law.

and above the authorized amount per mile of actual travel shall be made for storage, or for any other expense exclusive of ferry, tunnel, turnpike or bridge tolls incident to the maintenance and operation of said personal automobiles; provided, however, that an additional allowance for storage may be made when payment for use of personal automobiles in the discharge of official duties is made at a rate per mile of actual travel not exceeding such rate charged to State agencies by the Central Garage for use of State automobiles.

Travel, whether by common carrier, or privately-owned or for-hire conveyance, shall be over the most direct practicable route. Allowances for travel shall not be approved by the head of any department, institution or other agency of the State government, nor be paid by the Comptroller, for amounts which exceed the standard common carrier rates between points traveled or which include charges incurred because the travel time is greater than that by standard common carrier. Provided, however, that in an emergency in the interest of the State, described on the expense account and approved as justified by the head of the department, institution or other agency, and by the Comptroller, a greater allowance for actual expenses may be paid.

STUDENT LOAN FUNDS

Section 31. The appropriations provided for in this act for making loans to students at the several State institutions shall be expended upon such terms and according to such rules as may be prescribed by the respective governing boards of the institutions for which the appropriations are made, in making loans to needy and deserving students of talent and character from Virginia in said institutions for the purpose of aiding these to obtain an education at such institutions, who might not be able otherwise to do so. The term "student" shall include medical interns and residents as well as other students. Such loans shall not exceed $300.00 in any one session to the same student. In the case of medical and dental students, loans not to exceed $500.00 may be made. They shall be made to said students upon such terms, as to time and security, as the Comptroller shall prescribe or approve; provided, however, that the rate of interest charged said students on such loans shall be three per centum per annum.

The said State students' loan funds shall be preserved from depletion by the said institutions; and together with the repayments and accretions thereto, shall be held and used for the purpose, and on the terms, specified in this act and no other; and each of said institutions shall annually, not later than July in each year thereafter, file, in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, a statement, in detail, showing for the year past the amounts received by said funds, or the loans made, to whom made, and upon what terms, the amounts of the corpus of said funds, the amounts repaid to said funds, and from whom, and any other information deemed pertinent by the institution so reporting, or which may have been requested by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The Comptroller shall make no payment to any of the said institutions on account of the said students' loan funds unless and until the institutions applying for such payment shall have furnished the said Comptroller a certificate from the Superintendent of Public Instruction that such institution has complied, in all respects, with the foregoing requirements of this act in relation thereto.

The Auditor of Public Accounts shall annually audit and exhibit in his annual report the account of the said funds at each of the said institutions.

Where the student loan fund created by State appropriation is inadequate in amount at any institution to carry out fully the purpose for which this fund was established, the governing board and president of such institution, with the written consent and approval of the Governor first obtained, is authorized, for the purpose of providing an additional student loan fund, to borrow from such sources and on such terms as may be approved by the Governor an amount not to exceed $20,000, and to provide for such extensions or renewals of such loans as may be necessary. Such funds shall be used only in making loans to students in the same circumstances and under the same terms and regulations, as are herein prescribed for loans from the fund created by the State appropriations, and for no other purpose whatever. The repayments and interest accretions to said fund shall be used so far as may be necessary to repay the indebtedness of the institution created by the governing board and presiding officer thereof, in establishing said additional student loan fund. Such additional amounts may be borrowed by the governing board and president of the institution, with the Governor's approval, from time to time, as may be necessary to maintain the amount of said additional loan fund, whether in cash or notes receivable or both, including all amounts heretofore borrowed and not repaid, at $20,000.

Accounts shall be kept and reports rendered for all such additional loan funds in all respects as herein required for loan funds created by State appropriations, and the Auditor of Public Accounts shall annually exhibit in his report the amounts of the said additional loan funds at each institution.

It is hereby provided that the governing board of any State institution for which a Student Loan Fund has been established may, with the written approval of the Governor, cancel any indebtedness due such institution on account of a loan or loans made from such fund when such indebtedness has been outstanding more than fifteen years, and in the opinion of the president and governing board of the institution is uncollectible. Upon the cancellation of any such indebtedness a statement thereof describing the obligation in detail and the date of its cancellation shall be certified by the president of the institution to the Comptroller.

A loan to a student hereunder shall be deemed delinquent when not paid if due or when arrangements satisfactory to the institution have not been made, including some curtailment, within eighteen months after (a) graduation or (b) leaving the institution without graduating, or (c) completion of internship in the case of medical students.

The institution making the loan shall make every effort to collect the same when delinquent within the six month period following delinquency. If not collected within such six month period, the institution shall forward the same to the State Treasurer for collection, who shall promptly collect the same.

Section 32. Each institution to which appropriations for student loans are made or have been made under this act is authorized to employ not exceeding twenty-five per centum of the unobligated balances in such fund available to the institution as of June 30 of each fiscal year to establish a system of scholarships for graduates of Virginia high schools in accordance with the terms hereof:

(a) Any freshman student granted any such scholarship shall maintain at least a "C" average in his classes.

(b) Not more than twenty per centum of such scholarships shall be reserved for students in the sophomore year who have maintained at least a "C" average in their classes.

(c) The scholarships for freshmen shall be granted only to applicants classified as Virginia students who (1) rank in the upper fourth of their graduating class or (2) score at least 100 or more on the American Council on Education test or (3) score in the upper half of their class, on a national basis, on a similiar test.

(d) No scholarship provided for under this section shall be awarded to any person not eligible to be classified as a Virginia student nor then unless and until the applicant is needy and has satisfied the institution as to his lack of financial resources. No such scholarship shall exceed the rate of five hundred dollars or be less than three hundred dollars a year.

(d-1) It is further provided that any such institution may use all or any part of such scholarships as the institutional contribution to the National Defense Student Loan Fund for establishment of loan funds at the institution under such Federal program with such provision for repayment as appears proper to such institution.

(e) It is provided, however, that there shall be no employment of State student loan funds for the establishment of scholarships as herein authorized that would reduce the unobligated balance in any such fund below 50 per cent of the unobligated balance in such fund on July 1, 1958.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 33. Subject to uniform rules and regulations established by the Governor, the head of any department, institution or other agency of the State government may authorize, from any funds appropriated to such department, institution or other agency in this act or subsequently made available for the purpose, compensation or expenses or both compensation and expenses for employees pursuing approved training courses or academic studies for the purpose of becoming

Section 34. It is hereby provided that the Governor may authorize or direct, in writing, under such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, the transfer of prisoner labor, or of farm commodities produced, at any State institution or institutions to any other State institution or institutions. It is further provided that unit prices of foodstuffs or other commodities produced on farms, fixed under § 2-128 of the Code of Virginia, shall become effective only with the prior written approval of the Governor.

Section 35. The Virginia School for the Deaf and the Blind, at Staunton, shall reimburse monthly the Western State Hospital, at Staunton, for steam furnished the said School for the Deaf and the Blind by the said Western State Hospital at a rate per thousand pounds of steam so furnished, to be fixed by the Director of the Division of the Budget with the approval of the Governor. Such rate shall include the actual cost of the production of such steam, by the Western State Hospital, as determined by the Chief Engineer of the Division of the Budget, including in said production cost all operating expenses, depreciation on heating plant buildings and equipment and interest on the amount invested therein. The amount received by the Western State Hospital from the said Virginia School for the Deaf and the Blind, under this section, shall be credited by the Comptroller to the appropriation for the Western State Hospital as a refund on the cost of fuel purchased by the said hospital.

Section 36. It is provided that State employees who are served with meals at State institutions shall be charged for such meals on a basis approved by the Director of the Division of the Budget; such charges shall not be less than the value of raw food and the cost of direct labor incidental to preparation and serving. It is further provided that employees who occupy living quarters at State institutions shall be charged rental on a basis approved by the Director of the Division of the Budget; the head of each institution shall promptly advise the Director of all changes which might affect the rental value of such quarters. All revenues received from such charges shall be paid directly and promptly into the State treasury to the credit of the fund from which money for the employees' salaries is appropriated; provided, however, that revenues from such charges at Blue Ridge Sanatorium, Catawba Sanatorium and Piedmont Sanatorium shall be paid into the general fund of the State treasury.

Section 37. The State Board of Welfare and Institutions shall establish, with the approval of the Governor, such rates of charge, rules and regulations as may be proper and necessary in the operation of central laundries at institutions under control of the Board, and shall, with the Governor's approval, fix and regulate from time to time the rates to be charged for laundry work done for other State institutions by said central laundries.

Section 38. During the current biennium, the compensation of each officer and employee who enters the service of the Commonwealth or who is promoted to a vacant position shall be fixed at such rate as shall be approved by the Governor in writing and no increase shall be made in the compensation of any officer or employee of the State government during the said biennium except with the Governor's written approval first obtained; provided, however, that these requirements for written approval by the Governor shall not be mandatory as to any person to whom the Virginia Personnel Act and rules issued pursuant thereto are applicable. In all cases where any officer or employee is employed or promoted to fill a vacancy in a position for which a salary is specified by this act, the Governor may fix the salary of such officer or employee at a lower rate or amount than is specified. Unless exceptional circumstances are found by the Governor, salaries for newly employed or promoted officers and employees shall be established at the entrance rates provided by the compensation and classification plans established by the Governor.

However, where considerations of efficiency and economy require, the Governor may authorize that specified positions be filled without written approval of the

Unless otherwise ordered by the Governor this section shall not apply to any employee whose salary or wage, including the cash value of perquisites as established by the Governor, amounts to an annual rate not exceeding $1,200 from all sources. No lump sum appropriation for personal service shall be regarded as advisory or suggestive of individual salary rates or of salary schedules to be fixed under law by the Governor payable from the lump sum appropriation.

For his assistance in carrying out the provisions of this section the Governor may require information in writing from the head of any department, institution or agency of the State government or from any employee thereof, upon any subject relating to the duties of any office or position in such department, institution or agency.

Section 39. Except when otherwise directed by the Governor, the Director of the Division of the Budget shall prepare and act upon the quarterly allotments of funds from appropriations required by this Act, and by § 2-200 of the Code of Virginia, and the authorizations for rates of pay required by this Act. Such allotments and authorizations shall have the same effect as if the personal signature of the Governor were subscribed thereto. This section shall not be construed to prohibit an appeal by the head of any department, or institution or other agency of the State government to the Governor for reconsideration of any action taken by the Director of the Division of the Budget under this section.

APPROPRIATIONS TO NON-STATE AGENCIES

Section 40. No disbursement shall be made from any funds appropriated in this act to any society, institution, board, association, or agency, not owned or controlled by the State of Virginia, except with the consent and approval of the head or governing board of the supervisory department or agency herein designated. The payrolls or bills presented to the Comptroller for said expenditures shall be itemized as to service or commodity, unit cost, total cost, and name of person or organization receiving payment for the service or commodity, and shall be countersigned by the head or executive officer of the designated State department or institution, and lump sum transfers of appropriations to the aforesaid organizations are hereby prohibited. The accounts of each of the said organizations shall be subject to audit by the Auditor of Public Accounts at the direction of the Governor.

SESSION 1960

STUDIES AND REPORTS TO BE MADE

(Joint Resolutions to amend the Constitution have chapter numbers and precede the certificate of the Clerk)

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 21

Directing the Virginia Court Clerks' Association to make a study concerning the preservation of certain documents filed in the offices of the clerks of courts of record.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 12, 1960

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 12, 1960

Whereas, the statutes concerning the filing of documents in the offices of clerks of courts of record vary considerably concerning the period of time as to which such documents operate as a lien upon the property referred to in such documents, and many papers relating to criminal matters are accumulated in such offices; and

Whereas, the problem of storage of such documents and papers in the offices of such clerks imposes an increasing burden and it would appear that certain documents and papers might be destroyed under conditions which would safeguard the interests of all concerned; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, that the Virginia Court Clerks' Association is hereby directed to make a study and report upon the following matters: the statutes which set forth the period of time documents and other papers filed in the offices of clerks of courts of record establish and maintain a lien upon the property referred to in such documents and, in the case of other papers, the extent to which the public interest is protected by the requirement of continuing preservation; and the matter of whether or not legislation should be enacted to establish a point beyond which such clerks would be permitted to destroy documents when the lien created thereunder no longer exists and, in the case of other papers, the public interest no longer requires the preservation of such records. All agencies of the State shall assist the Virginia Court Clerks' Association in this study. The study shall not involve documents relating to real estate, wills, probate, and other matters involving the personal rights or privileges of individuals, nor any other papers or documents constituting a record of any proceeding in any court served by such clerks' offices; provided that in the discretion of the Virginia Court Clerks' Association the study may include the question of destruction, after an appropriate period, of criminal warrants involving misdemeanors and proceedings thereon. The Virginia Court Clerks' Association shall conclude its study and make its report to the Governor and General Assembly not later than September one, nineteen hundred sixty-one and shall set forth in its report such drafts of legislation as it deems appropriate to effectuate its recommendations.

Agreed to by the House of Delegates, March 2, 1960

Agreed to by the Senate, March 12, 1960

Whereas, many states have adopted this procedure successfully; and

Whereas, such practice could be established for uniform application throughout this State; and

Whereas, such procedure might speed the cause of justice; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the Judicial Council is hereby requested to make a comprehensive study and report upon the advisability of using a discovery procedure in criminal and civil cases and, if the adoption of such procedure seems justified, the safeguards it should include so as to prevent the misuse of any such procedural method.
